

GENE AUCTION RULEBOOK

Gene Auction is a game of auction of genes overcome given crises. You will require only basic knowledge of Biological sciences. It is a game in which you have to apply logical skills. This event tests the knowledge and skills of the auction and basic biological sciences.

Here are the general rules and Protocols that need to be followed:

TEAMS

- You can make a team of two participants.
- The Team members should be able to communicate effectively with each other as well as the event heads.
- Other institute students can also participate in the event.
- The event is open for master students too.

FORMAT OF THE EVENT

ROUND 1

- The following round will start with the selection of the teams through a quiz test.
- The quiz will contain general knowledge and basic questions related to genes and biology.
- The test will contain 20 questions and the time for the test will be 15 minutes.
- No negative marking
- Use of google or any kind of external help will be considered an offence and the respective team will be disqualified.

The selected team will be informed via mail or personal contact.

ROUND 2 (CASE STUDY)

- This Round will consist of only 15 teams.

A group of three teams will be allotted a same case study.

Case study selection will be done by a lucky draw system.

- 20 minutes will be given for study.
- Rapid fire round will be conducted for every group with the same case study.
- From each group, the best 2 teams will be selected for the next round.
- Use of external help is strictly prohibited

ROUND 3(GENE AUCTION)

- 10 teams will proceed to the final round.
- Each team will be given particular ATP initially.
- Organisms will be allotted through a lucky draw system.
- 10 minutes will be given to research about allotted organisms.
- Auction will start with display of each organisms and its characteristics for 2 minutes,
- After the auction crisis will be given, through a statement followed by question answer round.

First team to answer correctly will be given points accordingly

- Followed by inter team auction,
- Further details and rules about the auction will be provided a day before auction.
- Top 3 teams with highest count of ATP's at the end of all the crises will be declared as Winners.

To make this competition more competitive, the groups with higher ranks in round 1 and 2 will get some advantage in the final round...so your performance in every round matters... The advantage will be told to you in the final round. So give your best to get the highest rank possible

